

The Day School Scoop

Dear Parents,

For the children, the best gift they will give this season will be to you. During December, they will be practicing for the Christmas pageant. In fact, I've been told that one child will not tell her mother what we are doing at school because it is a surprise! This is their chance to tell you about the greatest Christmas present ever, Jesus' birth. Every year, these children delight us with their performance and give us precious memories. With the spontaneity and joy of children, this pageant always brings smiles even to the most jaded adult. All family, friends, and parishioners are invited to this event.

The Twos and Threes will sing in the Christmas Choir while our Fours re-enact the Nativity scene on December 13 & 14 at 10:30 in the Church.

Later this month, I will email you a PowerPoint floor plan of your child's pageant. The children's positions are labeled so this should help with your seating decision in the church. Arrive early and be sure to bring your cameras.

Merry, merry Christmas!

Blessings!
Ellen Nietert

*Celebrate the Advent Season with
Your Children*

Advent season is the perfect opportunity for families to build faith together as we prepare for the birth of Jesus. I'm a small group leader for ten 1st & 2nd graders. Recently, I asked them what their favorite Bible story was. Eight girls said the nativity story. That's not too surprising an answer considering the season, but what really pleased me was the fact that all but one said they read the Bible nightly. This was not teacher led, but parent led. During this joyful season, find Christ in the Christmas story and begin building stronger faith practices in your own home. I hope these 10 young girls will inspire you. They certainly convicted me.

Robin Quick, Director of Ministry to Children, Youth and Families, is a great resource. Her email is rquick@christch.org. During Advent, the Christ Church Kids will be uncovering all the names of Jesus. Families can follow along at home using a list of names and bible verses. For more information please feel free to contact her.
