All About Chapel

Dear Parents,

There are lots of great aspects about my work here at the Day School, but I think one of my favorite experiences is teaching your children chapel. We begin teaching the children chapel in 3K and 4K, but they have learned about God in class long before they get to us in the church. We love to have chapel in the actual church so the children will realize that this place of worship welcomes big and little people. As you can imagine with a multi-age class, we get lots of funny and precious responses to questions. This is where I get to truly connect with your child through prayer, interactive songs, and fun lessons. Every lesson always ends with big hugs! In the photo, I'm dressed like Father Abraham. In January, our clergy will dress as the Three Wise Men, and I'll change water into wine by using a football cooler and Kool-Aid in the spring.

Recently, I taught the children clues about God. God is big like the big blue sky, strong like the ocean waves, and most importantly, God is LOVE! Our Children's Ministry Director, Sarah Fisher, and our Associate Rector, Dr. Jady Koch, will also be joining the children on a regular basis in chapel. Thank you for letting us share this most special gift, the love of God, to your sweet babies!

Blessings!
Ellen Nietert
